Next Year's Class Officers Elected

JACK STEPP
Sophomore Class President

WRA and MRA Elect Officers For 1968-69

The members of the Women's Residence Association and the Men's Residence Association recently elected officers for the 1968-69 year. The WRA ballot, in accordance with the new constitution, was a contest for the president and vice-president of WRA and the sophomore, junior and senior class council representatives for the coming year. The MRA confined its election to a vote for the office of president.

The MRA council nominated Don Dunnington, Marlow Garvin, Richard Harris and Eugene Smith for the 1968-69 president. Eugene Smith, a sophomore, won the election by a majority vote. His election earns him a place on student council for next year.

Auroras Are In!

The Aurora office announced today that the new Auroras are in and that a presentation party will be held tonight in Ludwig Center following prayer meeting.

The freshman, sophomore and junior classes elected their officers for the 1968-69 school year recently. After a week of petitioning for office, campaigning and voting, each class announced its elected officers.

The class of 1969 voted Paul Jetter as next year's senior class president in a run-off ballot. Larry Shalley won the vice-presidency on the second ballot. The senior class secretary will be Joyce Wine and the treasurer, Brenda Kirts. John Seaman, elected on the first ballot, and Dave McClaid, chosen on the third vote, will represent the senior class on the 1968-69 Student Council. The juniors selected Paula Snellenberger, Bob Beavin, Margaret Harris and Donna Hurt to serve on the social committee.

Rus Kinzinger won the battle for 1968-69 junior class president. The office of vice-president was tossed back and forth. Al Dicer came out on top in the run-off election, but the election was declared void. On the third ballot, John Glisson won the race. The office of junior class secretary went to Pam Dezwaan and that of treasurer to Connie Farrar. Miriam Moore and Ed Self were elected Student Council representatives.

Junior-Senior Banquet An Evening To Remember

Friday evening, May 10, holds a precious memory for the juniors and seniors at Olivet. The annual junior-senior banquet, "An Evening at the Boulevard," sponsored by the junior class in honor of the senior class, was held in the Boulevard room of the Chicago-Sheraton hotel.

Featured at the banquet was the group "A Patch of Blue," from Taylor University in southern Indiana. The musical ensemble of seven fellows provided entertainment the entire evening, blending and coordinating their voices with the string bass, drums and piano.

After the invocation by Dr. Harold W. Reed, president of the college, junior class president Jack Provincial gave words of welcome. Bill Seal, senior class president, responded with words of appreciation.

Guests at the banquet were Dr. and Mrs. Reed; Dr. and Mrs. John H. Cotner, vice-president of student affairs and wife; Dr. and Mrs. Paul Schwada, dean of the college and wife, Prof. and Mrs. Marion Jamison, senior class sponsor and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. John Donoho, junior class sponsor and husband.

"An Evening at the Boulevard" will be an evening 125 Olivetians will not forget.

(Kathy Riley would like to announce her engagement is canceled.)

RUS KINZINGER
Junior Class President

The junior social committee representatives for the coming year are Sherry Byrd, Diana Mason, Betty St. John and Linda Williams.

The class of 1971 will be headed by Jack Stepp next year. Mark Cooper took the co-pilot's position in a run-off election. The freshmen elected Linda Foulkes sophomore secretary and Phyllis Brunt treasurer. Winning the contest for sophomore Student Council representatives were Hal Fogarty and Bil Williams. Gloria Flack, Gregg Leach, Carol Martin and Chuck Watson will serve on the 1968-69 social committee.

Participation in these elections was widespread. Several students in all three classes filed petitions to run for office put up posters and made speeches. These actions gave evidence that class elections have taken on greater importance than in the past.

Steve Ward, Ken Gates To Head Prayer Band

The student body elected the 1968-69 Prayer Band president and song leader last Thursday. Nominated by the Prayer Band council, Steve Ward and Larry Gabbard, both juniors, competed for the office of president. Ward won the election and Ken Gates defeated Gene Smith for office of song leader.

Ward served as Prayer Band song leader this past year. He was also a member of the Collegians quartet and traveled last summer for the school. As the newly elected president, Steve will have a seat on the 1968-69 student council. Gates, a sophomore, works as an announcer for the Olivet radio station. He has entertained at numerous school functions with his songs and skits.

PAUL JETTER
Senior Class President

Orpheus Choir Holds Pop Goes The Music ... For Sing-In '68

"Let's Fall In Love" was the song which opened a unique experience in music in the production "Pop Goes the Music... For Sing-In '68". This production was their annual spring concert formerly known as "The Showcase of Music."

Under the leadership of Mrs. Naomi Larsen, the choir featured the following:

Laureen Larsen narrated the program.

Sheryl Meyering, Joe McClure and Daryl Speicher were the featured soloists.

David Nelson and Dale Everett played the guitar and harp. Also featured was a string base.

A stirring patriotic section completed the program. The sets for the concerts were designed and decorated by Dave Clendenon and Sue Johnson.

Olivet Seniors Await Graduation Exercises

Commencement exercises will be held in Chalfant Hall Thursday, May 30, at 10 a.m. Dr. Willis E. Snowbarger of Kansas City will be the speaker.

Dr. Harold W. Reed will address the seniors on Baccalaureate Sunday, May 26. In the evening Dr. Lyle Eckley from Peoria will be the guest speaker.

Senior Appreciation Day was held during the chapel hour Wednesday, May 22. This practice was started last year, in which the students honor the seniors. It is going to be a traditional day at Olivet. Bill Seal, president of the senior class addressed the faculty and student body. Dr. Reed gave the response. Treasurer Dave Williams presented the class gift, a focault pendulum for Reed Hall of Science to Dr. Paul Schwada who then gave a response of appreciation. The service was closed by a number sung by the senior

Kappa Is Winner of Track And Field Meet Beta Takes Close 2nd

Olivet's annual track and field day was held last Thursday and Friday on the athletic field. Close competition between societies found Kappa the overall winner with 144½ points and Beta a close second with 140. Gamma society finished third with 112 while Delta edged Zeta for fourth 78-77. Sigma finished last with 16.

Individual statistics showed Gamma's Dave McClaid as the top point getter. McClaid, finishing with 34 points, became the meet's only triple winner by winning the high and low hurdles as well as the pole vault. Dave Fightmaster (B) and Dana Schrock (Z) waged a close battle for second and third with Fightmaster, winner of the broad jump, coming out on top, 31-30. Schrock was a double winner, winning the 440 yd. run and the mile. Beta's Dick Bowman finished a close fourth with 28 points. He also was a double winner, winning the 100 yd. dash and 220 yd. run. The fifth and sixth place finishers were Delta's Gene Taylor and Gamma's Lon Williams with 24 and 21 points respectively. Williams' throw of 128'4" in the discus broke the previous school record.

Although heavy winds hampered the running events Thursday, some goods times were still reported.

Dr. Cotner then presented the following seniors the "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities Awards": Mary Ada Bennett, Larry Wilson Burggraf, Jane Irene Crisman, Barry Kendall Cunningham, Lou Ann Ellis, Ronald Frye, Dohn Herrington, Ronald Mygrant, Carolyn Sechrist, Jesse Turner, Natalie Whitis and Kathleen A. Williams.

The athletic awards were then awarded by Prof. Laura Donoho and Coach Barry May to the following people: Mary Hadley, Mike Rolfe, Mary Conrad, Barbara Crabtree, Richard Harden and William Seal.

The convocation ended with the singing of our Alma Mater.

Well Spoken

EDMUND BURKE: Men are qualified for civic liberties in exact proportion to their disposition to put moral chains upon their appetites.

JEREMY TAYLOR: Faith is the Christian's foundation, hope is his anchor, death is his harbor, Christ is his pilot and heaven is his country.

CHARLES H. SPURGEON: Faith and obedience are bound up in the same bundle. He that obeys God, trusts God; and he that trusts God, obeys God.

EUGENIA PRICE: If Christ lives in us, controlling our personalities, we will leave glorious marks on the lives we touch. Not because of our lovely characters, but because of His.

BILLY GRAHAM: Hell can be heaven, with Christ.

J. EDGAR HOOVER: A child who has been taught to respect the laws of God will have little difficulty respecting the laws of men.

BISHOP CHARLES H. BRENT: Prayer is simply intelligent, purposeful, devoted contact with God. Where that contact is established an sustained, prayer will work infallibly according to its own inherent laws.

PASTOR'S COLUMN

God Give Us Strength

By DR. FORREST W. NASH,
Pastor, College Church

Recently in a southern state the teenage son of a Nazarene pastor accidentally sideswiped another car. The husky young man, driver of the damaged auto, in a fit of unrestrained anger, knocked the teenage lad to the ground. He died enroute to the hospital. The next day the father of the deceased boy went to see the young man who had killed his son. He refused to see him. Later he committed suicide. What a price to pay for unsanctified temper! Incidentally, he was a college student, but such is not uncommon. Every day there are these who follow their unbridled impulses disregarding any will but their own. The cost of one such moment is marred character and a lifetime of remorse and regret. There is mercy at Calvary, to be sure, but individuals find it hard to forgive themselves. These scenes do not leave the corridors of our memory.

Be One of Five Thousand

At 2:30 Sunday afternoon, June 16, at least 25,000 Nazarenes will be present for the World Missions Rally in the Municipal Stadium in Kansas City. It will be without doubt the largest single gathering of Nazarenes in the history of the church.

One of the key features of this exciting service will be the singing of a 5,000 voice youth choir. It will be an unforgettable moment for them.

Youth — Teens — and College age — will be gathering for a special rehearsal at the Stadium at 11:30 a.m. Sunday. Hundreds are planning to drive in just for that day and will be arriving in time for the rehearsal and service. Those who play brass instruments will bring them, and will be joining the 200 piece brass choir.

Transportation arrangements involving car caravans and charter buses will make it possible for many hundreds of young people to come.

Pastors, youth leaders and parents are urged to consider any effort worthwhile, that will make it possible for their young people to participate in this historic service. May the physical immensity be surpassed only by the spiritual immensity. —Paul Skiles

Thoughts for Everyday Living

Good as gold: 'tis said that silence is golden—good as gold; there are times when silence is yellow!

Appeasement means compromising with injustice; it takes courage to speak out against injustice; appeasement is either a farce or a hoax, think!

An egotist is too big for his own britches. Ugh!

A challenge begets a risk; never lose the ability to take a risk; stand up and be counted; the courageous are articulate; society is doomed if it gives way to tyranny; think before you vote!

Doing nothing for ourselves is often our undoing.

No doubt about it—you make enemies when you excel others; foolish to think you make friends (?) by letting others excel you; always do your best!

Man is never less alone than when he is alone.

Trading old love for new is usually a bad exchange; be constant!

To be borne by others—bear with them.

Success: gains and pains are bed cousins!

Be yourself; don't imitate; imitations rob you of time and temper, yes sir!

Hands and habits—both good and bad; careful!

Look up; if you would be with Him, seek those things which are above. Back to God!

Pause to pray today; pray for peace!

Movement Afoot To End Mother's Day

By JOEL SHELDEN

It was made public today that a local society is being formed to do away with Mother's Day. The society, known as "We Hate Mother's Day" or WHAM, is headed by Harriet (call me Harry for short) Carey. The society is founded in the belief that many single women are angered at the very thought of Mother's Day and would like to see the special day paying tribute to mothers abolished.

I interviewed Miss Carey outside her headquarters where she and 13 followers were carrying placards reading, "We Hate Mother's Day." Harriet said, "It all began in 1908 with that radical Anna M. Jarvis when she suggested that a special service be held for mothers in a Philadelphia church." Harry (as she prefers to be called) said that Miss Jarvis would not "let well enough alone. She began campaigning for the idea and it spread," screamed Harry. (Miss Jarvis' efforts caused much public acceptance until President Wilson issued a proclamation in 1914 designating the second Sunday in May as the first national Mother's Day.) Harry raved on: "That Jarvis dame even started that carnation business, you know, colored if your mother's alive and white if she's not."

When asked who could participate in the society, Harry said, "All unhappy single girls who wish they were mothers and all men who are jealous because Father's Day isn't an official holiday." I suggested to Miss Harry Carey that perhaps Miss Jarvis is not totally responsible for Mother's Day because many foreign countries have a Mother's Day and also, mother worship practices go back to ancient Greece. She hit me over the head with her "We Hate Mother's Day" placard.

Mothers Uplifted On Annual Weekend

The 200 mothers were very pleased with the students and well impressed with their planned activities of the weekend, according to Carolyn Sechrist, president of the WRA, in regards to the recent Mother-Daughter weekend, "Up With Mothers." Of all the event, each was synchronized well and went off as planned.

Long to be remembered was the inspirational, challenging talk of Mrs. Sam Wolgemuth, taken from St. Augustine's prayer "Let me know myself and let me know thyself." Mrs. Wolgemuth of Wheaton, Ill., whose husband is president of the Youth for Christ International, presented her challenge at the 6 p.m. smorgasbord on Saturday where over 500 mothers and daughters were in attendance.

The vespers services, held in each of the dorms each evening, will long rest in the memories of our mothers.

The mothers and daughters who attended the performances of "The Solid Gold Cadillac" will not forget the old lady who acquired controlling interest in a rapidly expanding company.

Honored guests for the Mother-Daughter activities May 3-5, were the house directors, Mrs. Harold W. Reed, wife of the college president, Mrs. Naomi Larson, head of the piano department, Mrs. C. S. McClain, wife and Dr. C. S. McClain, and Mrs. Forrest Nash, the wife of the pastor of College Church.

Tigers Beat Bethel Twice To End 1st Season

Nazarene Student Leaders Hold Session

"The students in the world" was the theme of the Nazarene Student Leadership Conference. The conference met at Eastern Nazarene College, with Duane Clinker as chairman.

Seven college sent representatives to the NSLC. The colleges represented were Bethany Nazarene College, Eastern Nazarene College, Northwest Nazarene College, Nazarene Theological Seminary, Pasadena College, Olivet Nazarene College and Trevecca Nazarene College. There was a total of 23 student leaders present.

One of the most outstanding aspects of the NSLC is the opportunity for Nazarene youth to discuss important questions pertaining to their church. This helps in facing the problems we have on our own campus.

Thursday night, the representatives attended a banquet of swordfish steak. Dr. John Rigden, Ph.D., John Hopkins University, gave the keynote address.

Students presented three papers. They were the student governments responsibility in defending student's rights, the students role in change, and the source of tension in the church. Olivet presented a report on our program of spiritual outreach.

One of the more interesting topics was the sources of tension in the church. John Seaman said, "The delegates found that the issues of concern were freely and openly discussed in hopes of better understanding and advancement of the Church of the Nazarene. It really brought to head what students on our campuses are thinking about."

Saturday was a day of business sessions. There were proposals urging action on or against a definite stand for or against by the church in a number of areas were made. Such areas included the Vietnam war, conscientious objectors and Negro equality.

NSLC will be held next year at Northwest Nazarene College at the end of April. Leon Fulcher, 1968-69 student body president at Northwest, will be chairman.

MISHAWAKA, Ind.—The first intercollegiate baseball team of Olivet Nazarene College opened and closed its season with Bethel College. But, whereas Olivet had been on the losing side, dropping an 11-5 decision to Bethel in the opener at Olivet April 23, it changed here to the winning side here Saturday.

The Tigers unended Bethel in a doubleheader 3-1 and 4-1 for a final, respectable 8-6 record.

ONC Golfers Take 1st In Triangular

GRANT PARK—The Olivet Nazarene College golf team closed its first intercollegiate season on a successful note by winning a triangular match on the Minne Monesse golf course near here Saturday.

The Tiger linksmen defeated Spring Arbor (Mich.) College 13½-11½, avenging a season opening loss and also beat Huntington (Ind.) College by the same score. Spring Arbor defeated Huntington 10-5.

Olivet's Gary Perry and Dave Rose shared medalist honors Saturday. Both toured the par 71 layout with 78s. Perry shot 38-40 and Rose 39-39 in the match played in intermittent showers.

Bill Seal shot 40-41—81. Virgil Rush 44-45—89 and Chuck Ellis 43-47—90 as Olivet closed its season with a 12-6 record.

Olivet broke a 1-1 second inning tie in the first game with a single tally in the top of the fourth to go ahead for keeps 2-1.

IRONICALLY, BETHEL aided Olivet to its first game victory in the same way the Tigers had "helped" Bethel win at Olivet in the April 23 fray. It was an error on Bethel third baseman Bob Sherrard that permitted Olivet's Steve Watson to reach first in the fifth inning and score later on an error by the shortstop. Watson had advanced to second on a single by Mark Parker and moved to third on a fielder's choice. In the April 23 game, 10 Olivet errors had helped Bethel to its victory.

Parker's single was one of two hits he had in the first game. Dale Boudreau, a Bradley resident, Brock Swanson, Bob Lightle and Ken Davis were the other first game Olivet hitters, collecting two hits each.

Don Keathley, a right hander from Marshall, Mich., allowed just three hits, struck out nine and walked two in winning the first game. One of Bethel's three hits was the only extra base smack, a double by Bob Leiter in the sixth inning.

The mound victory gave Keathley a final 4-2 record and a 2.50 earned run average.

OLIVET HAD a 3-0 lead after two innings in the second contest.

Watson led off the game for the Tigers with a double. The next man, Parker, walked. Swanson singled, driving home Watson. Parker went to third on Swanson's hit and scored on a sacrifice by Lightle.

In the second inning, Marlow Garvin, the winning pitcher, singled, stole second base and went home on a single by Boudreau.

The Tigers' sixth inning tally was scored when Parker singled in Davis, who had singled.

LEE ZUMBAUGH'S double in the bottom of the sixth inning gave Bethel its only run in the fray.

Second baseman Parker, a junior from Des Moines, Iowa, and Davis, a freshman from St. Louis, Mo., each had a good afternoon at the plate. Parker was four for six in the two games while Davies went four for six and scored once.

Olivet Nine Bows To Judson Friday 6-3

A four run fourth inning put Judson College ahead of Olivet 6-3 and it went on to defeat the Tigers 7-4 on the latter's diamond Friday. The victory was the first in 14 season games for Judson. For Olivet, it was the fourth straight loss.

Judson trailed 3-2 after three innings before scoring four times in the fourth.

The visitors scored their fourth inning runs on two singles and two walks.

THE FIFTH RUN, which put Judson ahead for good, was scored by leftfielder Mike Laurent. He singled, then plated later on a single by Howard Meadows.

Olivet had a 2-0 lead after the first inning and also scored once each in the second and sixth innings.

Ken Davis, a left fielder, and catcher Bob Lightle each enjoyed a good day at the plate for Olivet. Davis went three for four and scored once. Lightle was three for five and had two RBIs. His fifth inning triple was the game's only extra base hit.

Olivet used two pitchers in the contest. Dennis Jensen, a right hander from Kankakee, started the game for the Tigers, but was relieved by Don Keathley, also a right hander. Jensen was the loser.

THE MOUND win went to Judson's Jim Robinson, a left hander who relieved Howard Meadows in the third inning.

VICTORIOUS OLIVET INTERCOLLEGIATE GOLF TEAM—Coach Ward holds trophy won at Bethel Invitational. Olivet won over 7 other schools.
